Attached is a translation of a report on the production of titanium in the Soviet Zone of Germany.

* Comment. To date there has been no confirmation of the information in this report on the production and processing for armament purposes of titanium as high quality steel alloy constituent in the Krupp-Truson Plant, which now belongs to the Amo SAG, and in the former Schwartzkopf-Locomotive Plant in Witten which is now a plant of the VVB(2) Lova, for armament purposes titanium for use in high quality steel alloys. It is possible that titanium is produced in the HLAG and DEGUSSA Plants as reported. However, this information has still to be confirmed.
